Text: Luke 24:1-12

SUMMARY OF SERMON: The resurrection of Jesus changes everything. Yet so unexpected was this glorious miracle that the initial witnesses simply wondered at the evidence first given. Their wondering actually was necessary to grasp in full what had happened. That mental process enabled the truth of the resurrection, and its transforming impact, to sink deep into their heart.

RELATED BIBLE PASSAGES FOR THE COMING WEEK [The Bible readings this week remind us that the resurrection of Jesus is real and changes everything.]

Monday, Apr. 17 – Luke 24:36-53 [The resurrection of our Lord was so shocking and unexpected to His first followers that it took awhile for its reality to set in. But Jesus makes it clear in vv.47-48 that the course and purpose of their lives (and ours) will be transformed now that He is risen.]

Tuesday, Apr. 18 – Acts 1:1-11 [As with the Luke passage yesterday, it is clear in this passage that Jesus used His resurrection appearances to prepare His followers for lives of bearing witness to the nations that faith in Jesus, crucified and risen, is God's only plan of salvation.]

Wednesday, Apr. 19 – Psalms 16 [While David wrote this psalm to emphasize the eternal blessings and fruit of a person of faith in God, the NT believers saw a deeper significance in v. 10 as fulfilled in Christ's resurrection.]

Thursday, Apr. 20 – Romans 6:1-11 [The resurrection of Christ assures the resurrection with an immortal body and eternal life for all who trust in Him. Not only that, but it changes our focus in life now. We no longer want to live selfishly in sinful ways but by His grace we want to live righteously for the glory of God.]

Friday, Apr. 21 – I Corinthians 15:1-11 [Paul states that the crucifixion and resurrection are of "first importance." This alone means that our purpose in life is to live for Jesus, our Lord and Savior.]

Saturday, Apr. 22 – I Peter 1:1-12 [We now have a "living hope" in life through the resurrection of Christ from the dead. This sustains us through the trials and challenges of this life.]
