

October 9-15, 2016

Text: II Corinthians 9:6-15

SUMMARY OF SERMON: In chapters 8-9 of II Corinthians Paul a wonderful theology on Christian giving. In our text he concludes this section with an emphasis on God's grace overflowing to us in Jesus Christ. In response to His grace we can give freely and generously to the building up of the Lord's Church. Such giving of our tithes and offerings reflects a response to God's grace of gratitude and trust.

RELATED BIBLE PASSAGES FOR THE COMING WEEK [The Bible readings this week speak of the value of being a good, generous steward of all that the Lord gives us.]

Monday, Oct. 10 – Mark 12:41-44 [This well-known delightful little story of the generous widow serves to illustrate that the Lord looks on the heart of the giver, not the amount. This poor widow obviously trusted the Lord to provide for her.]

Tuesday, Oct. 11 – Luke 12:13-21 [In this parable Jesus called the rich farmer a fool – not because the man had great possessions but because the possessions had him. The man thought only of himself, not of gratitude to God for provisions or of others in their need.]

Wednesday, Oct. 12 – I Chronicles 29:1-20 [David's prayer is one of most profound theological expressions of giving in response to God's grace in all of the Bible. The people willingly gave that God would be glorified through the Temple and then, after giving, they worshipped with cheerful hearts.]

Thursday, Oct. 13 – Matthew 25:14-30 [This parable is all about the biblical theme of stewardship – everything we have is from God and we are to use what He gives us for His glory. In the parable are examples of both faithful stewardship and unfaithful stewardship.]

Friday, Oct. 14 – Acts 2:42-47 [The early church, freshly empowered by the Holy Spirit and filled with gratitude at the grace of God poured out on them through Jesus Christ, exhibited very healthy stewardship and cheerful lives of giving.]

Saturday, Oct. 15 – Revelation 3:14-22 [The church at Laodicea was in trouble. Although materially well off they had lost their zeal for the Lord. Their relationship with Him was weakened by their focus on materialism. He calls for them to repent and seek the true, lasting riches He alone brings.]

October 9-15, 2016

Text: II Corinthians 9:6-15

SUMMARY OF SERMON: In chapters 8-9 of II Corinthians Paul a wonderful theology on Christian giving. In our text he concludes this section with an emphasis on God's grace overflowing to us in Jesus Christ. In response to His grace we can give freely and generously to the building up of the Lord's Church. Such giving of our tithes and offerings reflects a response to God's grace of gratitude and trust.

RELATED BIBLE PASSAGES FOR THE COMING WEEK [The Bible readings this week speak of the value of being a good, generous steward of all that the Lord gives us.]

Monday, Oct. 10 – Mark 12:41-44 [This well-known delightful little story of the generous widow serves to illustrate that the Lord looks on the heart of the giver, not the amount. This poor widow obviously trusted the Lord to provide for her.]

Tuesday, Oct. 11 – Luke 12:13-21 [In this parable Jesus called the rich farmer a fool – not because the man had great possessions but because the possessions had him. The man thought only of himself, not of gratitude to God for provisions or of others in their need.]

Wednesday, Oct. 12 – I Chronicles 29:1-20 [David's prayer is one of most profound theological expressions of giving in response to God's grace in all of the Bible. The people willingly gave that God would be glorified through the Temple and then, after giving, they worshipped with cheerful hearts.]

Thursday, Oct. 13 – Matthew 25:14-30 [This parable is all about the biblical theme of stewardship – everything we have is from God and we are to use what He gives us for His glory. In the parable are examples of both faithful stewardship and unfaithful stewardship.]

Friday, Oct. 14 – Acts 2:42-47 [The early church, freshly empowered by the Holy Spirit and filled with gratitude at the grace of God poured out on them through Jesus Christ, exhibited very healthy stewardship and cheerful lives of giving.]

Saturday, Oct. 15 – Revelation 3:14-22 [The church at Laodicea was in trouble. Although materially well off they had lost their zeal for the Lord. Their relationship with Him was weakened by their focus on materialism. He calls for them to repent and seek the true, lasting riches He alone brings.]