

Teacher Characteristics

Biblical Example - Apollos

Illustrated in Jesus - Matthew 5-7

- _____ 1. Present truth in a logical, systematic way.
- _____ 2. Love to validate truth by intensive research.
- _____ 3. Love to study and do research.
- _____ 4. Love to study words and their precise meanings.
- _____ 5. Prefer using Biblical illustrations (rather than personal anecdotes.)
- _____ 6. Resist using scripture out of context.
- _____ 7. Concerned that truth is presented in complete context.
- _____ 8. More objective than subjective.
- _____ 9. Emphasize facts and the accuracy of words.
- _____ 10. Develop and use a large vocabulary.
- _____ 11. Test the source of knowledge of others who teach.
- _____ 12. Prefer teaching believers to engaging in evangelism.
- _____ 13. Feel this gift is foundational to the other gifts.
- _____ 14. Solve problems by starting with scripture and relating to experience.
- _____ 15. Tend to be intellectually sharp.
- _____ 16. Tend to be disciplined and diligent.
- _____ 17. Tend to be emotionally self-controlled.
- _____ 18. Have a select circle of friends.
- _____

Potential Problem Areas:

- a. Often neglect the practical application of truth.*
- b. Can be slow to accept the viewpoint of others.*
- c. Tend to develop pride over their research; can feel superior.*